2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

“Coláiste Mhuire is a Catholic all boys voluntary secondary school with a Catholic ethos under the trusteeship of the Edmund Rice Schools Trust.

‘Catholic Ethos’ in the context of a Catholic voluntary secondary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- (b) a living relationship with God and with other people; and
- (c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and

(d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith, and which school provides religious education in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference. In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Coláiste Mhuire shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.”

The characteristic spirit of our school is based on the vision and values of the ERST Charter. The five characteristics of an Edmund Rice school underpin the operation of our Edmund Rice Secondary School, namely:

- Promoting partnership means that at Coláiste Mhuire we make everyone feel welcome, build a Christian community with a shared vision and mission, recognise the voice of staff, students and parents and are involved in our community.
- Excellence in teaching and learning means that at Coláiste Mhuire we have high expectations of our teachers and students, nurture the development of all aspects of our lives, respond to a changing world, use technology responsibly and creatively to enhance our learning and promote learning as a lifelong enterprise.

- Creating a caring school community means that at Coláiste Mhuire we show care and compassion as exemplified in the life of Jesus, respect and celebrate the dignity of each person, seek to help those who are disadvantaged or in need in society and speak up for those whose voice is not heard.
- Inspiring transformational leadership means that at Coláiste Mhuire we motivate people to work towards the vision of Blessed Edmund, inspire the minds and hearts of our students to have courage and confidence to stand up for what we believe in, lead by giving good example and take responsibility for our actions.

Coláiste Mhuire, Board of Management, parents, staff and students, working together as a school community within the resources available, aim to provide a Catholic education in the best possible environment to cater for the cultural, educational, moral, physical, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions of all its students.

Coláiste Mhuire is committed to excellence. The school provides a caring and disciplined environment in which all students are challenged to reach their academic and personal potential.

We show special concern for the disadvantaged and we make every effort to ensure that the uniqueness and dignity of each person is respected, and responded to, especially through the pastoral care system in Coláiste Mhuire.

We realise too, that we must cater for the changing needs of today's world and, towards that end, we frequently review our various programmes.

Being keenly aware of the ever increasing effect of outside influences on the lives of our students, we are even more concerned to maintain Catholic values and practices.

The faith development of our students is given priority through an extensive and creative Religious Education programme. The programme provided is religious education, not religious instruction. Nurturing faith, Christian spirituality and Gospel-based values means that at Coláiste Mhuire we live our Catholic Faith, experience God, respect the beliefs and values of each member of the school community and work for social and ecological justice.

5. The Colaiste Mhuire Application Form must be completed in full.

6. The Code of Behaviour must be signed and returned.

In arriving at a decision the Principal will consult with the student's parents/guardians, his former school(s) and the educational welfare officer. The Principal or Deputy Principal may invite parents/guardians of the student to attend a meeting to discuss the academic support needed to assist such a transfer and ensure the student achieves their full potential in Coláiste Mhuire.

As soon as is practicable, but not later than 21 days, the Principal shall make a decision in respect of the application concerned and inform the parents/guardians in writing thereof. (Education Welfare Act 2000 (Section 19 (3)).

It is not the policy of the school to accept transfer applications from students who are already enrolled in local post-primary schools after 1st May, preceding the academic year for which the student is seeking to join. Transfers into any student year group after 1st. May will only be considered in exceptional circumstances.

Placement on the waiting list of Colaiste Mhuire is in the order of priority assigned to the students' applications after the school has applied the selection criteria in accordance with this student transfer policy. The waiting list will terminate at the end of the academic year for which it was created.

The following are the school's arrangements for parents of students and students (over 18) who have requested that the student attend the school without attending religious instruction in the school:

These arrangements will not result in a reduction in the school day of such students.

Parents of students and students (over 18) who wish to opt out of RE class should make a written request to the Principal. A meeting will then be arranged with the parent or the student, as the case may be, to discuss their options. Throughout this process the constitutional right of the parent/student (over 18 years) will be respected by the school.

The 1998 Education Act states that schools are required to promote the moral, spiritual, social and personal development of students (Section 9 (d)). At Coláiste Mhuire the allocated time on the timetable for Religious Education responds to this. Students who opt out of RE class are required to use this time to study material relating to their own religious tradition or belief, for example sacred texts. Students of no religious faith, who opt out of RE class, are required to study relevant literature or philosophical texts. A list of suggested texts can be provided by the school. In line with the Edmund Rice Schools Trust Charter, Coláiste Mhuire places great importance on the religious or spiritual formation of all its students. Each student has his own personal journey which will be encouraged and respected. Students who opt out of RE class will not be offered extra tuition or study periods.
